The screenshot shows the 'Faculty Profiles' page of the National Institute of Science Education and Research. The header includes the institute's logo and name, along with a 'HOME' link and a user profile icon. The main content area features a profile for 'Dr Luke Chamandy', a Reader at the institute. It includes a profile picture, a 'View Profile' button, and a list of publications (20 articles, 1 other). The 'Expertise' section lists 'Astronomy and Astrophysics' and 'Astrophysics'. Below this is a 'Personal Information' section with an 'Edit Information' button. At the bottom, there is an 'Academic Identity' section with fields for 'Researcher Id' and 'Google Scholar Id'. The right sidebar contains a list of categories with 'Add' buttons: Education Qualification (with a dropdown showing '2014' and 'PhD IUCAA'), Honours and Awards, Doctoral Theses Guided, Membership in Professional Bodies, Membership in Committee, Research Project, and Patent.

- You may now add or update most of your information like honors and awards, doctoral thesis, research project, patents etc.
- Once you save it, the same will reflect on your IRINS profile.
- The example of addition of patent is given in the screenshot, after filling the relevant data and clicking on the save button, the data will get updated on your IRINS profile.

The screenshot shows the 'Patent' form in the IRINS profile. The form is divided into two main sections: a list of fields on the left and a detailed input form on the right. The 'Patent' section is highlighted with a red circle, and a red arrow points to it from the right. The detailed input form is also highlighted with a red border, and a red arrow points to it from the left. At the bottom, the 'Save' button is highlighted with a red circle, and a red arrow points to it from below.
